

191—10.53(522A) Requirement to hold a license.

10.53(1) A rental company that desires to offer or sell insurance in connection with the rental of a vehicle must file an application with the division and receive a license as a limited licensee.

10.53(2) A counter employee who desires to offer or sell insurance products must file an application with the division and receive a license as a counter employee.